HIGHER LICENSES PASS ONE BOARD

Common Council Takes Action on License Bill Without Debate.

ALDERMEN TO ACT.

Meeting Will be Called Friday by Upper Board to Consider Increases —Harmonious Meeting Last Night.

The increase in the licenses on 48 liquor dealers in Alexandria, which will net the city over $5,000 additional revenue per annum, was passed last night by the lower board of City Council without any discussion. The bill now goes to the Board of Aldermen who will hold a special meeting on Friday night to consider it. It is said that this body will not agree to the changes and the rates will then have to be compromised.

The only statement made in reference to the increase was made by Councilman Williams, a member of the finance committee, who in answer to an inquiry from Councilman Birrell said that the increase was made for the purpose of securing additional revenue. He presented a statement showing that the amount necessary to run the city during the next year, including $25,450 already appropriated for street work, would be $196,680. From all sources of sources, including the increased licenses the city would only receive $163,500, leaving a deficit of $33,180. He said that the license had been raised on the liquor dealers, as they were paying smaller licenses here than in any other place in Virginia.

When the bill was taken from the table Councilman Smith suggested that this law should first go to the Board of Aldermen as the Chairman of the committee on finance was a member of that board, and he moved that this be done. On a vote the motion was lost ayes 6, Messrs. Spinks, Smith, Birrell, Monroe, Marshall and Bryan; noes, 9, Messrs. Leadbeater, Burke, Graham, Williams, Brockett, Harrison, Swan, Chauncey and Brumback.

This was a test vote as the law was passed a few minutes later by a vote of 9 to 6, the members dividing again exactly the same as before.

The only discussion during the reading of the law was a brief comment by Mr. Birrell on the tax on hucksters he believing that the license requirement on Washington hucksters should be more drastic.

The annual apropriation bill, carrying appropriations of $171,230, not including any money for new street work, the new high school building or the new truck house, was passed. It is estimated that the expeditures for these purposes will amount to $75,000 additional.

The finance committee recommended that $2,800 additional be appropriated for school purposes. It was explained this was brought about by an increase of $5 per month in pay of school teachers, making a total of $1,150, and three addiitonal teachers had been employed at a salary of $550 a year.

A resolution authorizing the finance committee to borrow $4,000 to pay the expenses of the city until the end of the fiscal year was presented to Common Council and was passed at a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen today.

Among other matters passed were the annual tax bill imposing a tax rate of $1.80 on real and personal property; the approval of the new trustees of the Alexandria Hospital; the appropriation of $1,300 to surface Columbus street between Queen and Oronoco. Several minor changes to the health laws were laid over until the next meeting. A number of building permits were granted which will be found in the official proceedings.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

All the Aldermen save Mr. Summers were present last night. The votes were unanimous upon all measures which came before the body.

Mr. Field, of the finance committee, presented the appropriation bill for the coming year. In doing so he made a number of explanations of the various items some of which have been increased this year. The bill was passed.

Mr. Field also submitted reports of the same committee upon communications of the City School Board and Alexandria Free Kindergarten, the former announcing a shortage of $3,000 and the latter asking for an appropriation of $500. The chairman o fthe committee stated that the appropriation for school purposes had been increased materially in the appropriation bill previously disposed of, an dthat $150 for the Kindergarten is provided for in the bill.

There was some interchange of opinion in regard to the increased item for public schools.

Mr. Ballenger was averse to one of the rooms in Lee building being used for kindergarten purposes, in the crowded conditions now existing in the public schools. He saw no reason why the school board could not hold its sessions in one of the school rooms, and not have a separate apartment for them.

The reports were finally adopted by unanimous votes.

The committee on streets made favorable reports on a resolution appropriating $1,200 for the construction of a sewer on Payne street, from Cameron to Queen, also on a resolution appropriating $1,300 to resurface and asphalt Columbus street from Queen to Oronoco.

Mr. Field said Council had better move slowly in matters calling for $1,200 and $1,300 here and there, as they soon run up sums which the city would find it hard to manage. He said the city had already mapped out work to cost $25,000, and had been ecmpelled to borrow $50,000. Four thousand would be borrowed to carry the city over to the new fiscal year. These sums would amount to many thousands of dollars.

Mr. Ballenger aske Mr. Field how much money the city would receive back from abutting property-owners.

Mr. Field said about one-fifth of the expenditure, and five years would elapse before that was paid.

Mr. Ogden hoped the resolution would pass.

Mr. Field announced that he would vote for he measures, and that he was merely calling attention to existing conditions.

The recommendations of the committee were adopted.

The other business was transacted without debate.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Man Said to Heve Been Drunk and Asleep on Tracks.

Richmond, Va., May 28.—A man believed to be Harry Moore ,about 50 years old apparently a stranger in Richmond, was run over and instantly killed last night at 8:30 o'clock by a freight car which was being shifted in the yards of the Southern Railway on the south side of the city dock at the foot of Twenty fourth street. The police gained information that he was drunk and had gone to sleep on the track. He was seen about the yards several times during the day. Moore's body was badly mangled both legs being severed, one at the knee and the other at the hip.

That the dead man was Moore was the conclusion of Detective-Sergeant Wiley who examined his body. He found a letter in his pocket addressed to Moore at 321 North Fifth street, this city. It bore the return address of the Philadelphia Protectory for Boys, Fort Kennedy, Pa.

General Lundsay Lundsford Lomax, Confederate officer of the Civil war, died at Providence Hospital, Washington this morning. Hewas seventy-eight years old. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at his old home in Warrenton, Va. The services will be very simple.

General Lomax was taken to the hospital there about two weeks ago with a fractured hip, the result of a fall while visiting his daughter in Warrenton. Owing to his age, and the shock, his condition became critical almost immediately and he lingered feebly until his death.

The general was the oldest surviving major general of cavalry of the Confederacy at the time of his death.

LEAP FROM WINDOW PROVES FATAL

Mrs. Annie Herman, of 907 Cameron St., Killed in Washington.

SUICIDE FEARED.

Woman Came Here Last September to Establish a Residence in Order That Divorce Might be Obtained.

Jumping from a fourth-story front window of the rooming house at 1418 Pennsylvania avenue, northwest, Washington about 4 o'clock this morning, Mrs. Annie Herman, thirty-five years old, who since last September has been a resident of Alexandria, having a room at the residence of B. B. Smith, deputy city sergeant, at 907 Cameron street, incurred injuries from which she died several hours later in Emergency Hospital.

The woman was fully dressed, and although no one saw her when she plunged to her death, the fact that she struck the sidewalk several feet from the building indicated that she had stood on the sill and jumped toward the street.

Mrs. Herman was employed as a maid at the New Willard and had been living at the house about three weeks. She occupied a room with Miss Mary Williams, another maid. Miss Williams was awakened by a scream. Getting up and looking out the window, she saw her roommate lying on the sidewalk, forty feet below. She notified the landlady and the two women hastily put on some clothing and ran to the street.

In the meanwhile a pedestrian had run to the Florentine Cafe, just a few doors below, and told Fred Wiggington, who is employed in the place at night, to telephonue the Emergency Hospital.

It was found she had broken her right arm and left leg, and was also suffering rom a probable fracture of the skull.

Mrs. Herman was employed at the Shoreham until about a month ago when she went to the Willard.

Extending out from the second floor of the building is a balcony on which the woman would probably have landed had she fallen, and not jumped, from the window.

Mrs. Herman, has been a resident of Alexandria since last September. At that time she came here and took a room at the residence of Smith, deputy sergeant sergeant. Shortly after her arrival here she told Mr. Smith that she intended making her home in Alexandria for a year in order that she might become a Virginia citizen and be enabled to secure a divorce from her husband who lived in Washington. She spent but little time here in Alexandria and had few friends.

When Mrs. Smith was notified of Mrs. Herman's death, at the same moment, she received a postal card from the dead woman mailed in Washington at 6 o'clock last night telling her to bring over to Washington this morning a young woman for whom she had secured a position in one of the Washington hotels.

SKULL TURNS BULLET.

Cranium Excites the Wonder of Justice Crutchfield.

Richmond, May 28.—When Alexander Coleman was in Police Court yesterday in answer to the charge of feloniously shooting Luther Love, another negro, it was brought out that the latter's skull was so thick and hard that it turned the bullet, causing it to veer around the back of his cranium, making only a surface wound.

"I have heard of a nigger's skull being so hard that it broke a brick," observed Justice Crutchfield, "but this is the first time I have ever known one to turn a bullet."

Witnesses stated that Coleman who was heavily charged with "dope," shot Love when the latter asked him for a cigarette.

The hearing was continued until May, 30th.

TO DISCONTINUE SCHOOL.

Arlington Institute, Oldest Girl's School to Close Saturday.

Saturday marks the passing of Alexandria's oldest institute for girls, the Arlington Institute, a private preparatory school for young ladies, conducted by Miss Annie M. Chandlee and her sister, Miss Elma P. Chandlee at 215 North Washington street.

The closing graduating exercises to be held at the school Saturday, May 31st, will be the last held and marks the passing of the institute which has been one of Alexandria's noted schools for girls where a large number of pupils have been educated during the last half century.

The institute was organized by Miss Rebecca Powell, which at first occupied quarters at the corner of Washington and Duke, later moving to what was called the Confederate Hall. From this location the school was moved to the present building, the mansion owned by the Broders family.

After Miss Powell gave up teaching the school was taken over by Miss Dora Chinn and Miss Annie M. Chandlee, who conducted it for a number of years. The past fourteen years the schol has bene conducted solely by the Misses Chandlee.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Carlin will occupy the mansion after extensive alterations are completed, work on which will commence shortly after the first of July, by which time Miss Annie and Miss E. P. Chandlee will have dismantled the school and moved their effects to Sandy Springs, Md., where they own a home to which they intend to retire, giving up teaching, after a lifetime spent in that occupation.

MAY ESCAPE TRIAL.

Charge Against "Holy Rollers" May Not be Considered.

Bristol, Va., May 28.—It now looks though the twenty "Holy Rollers," who were indicted in Carroll county recently ,charged with having murdered David King, a farmer, of the Fancy Gap community, who was found dead in his barnyard after the cult had prayed fervently for his divine removal, are destined to escape punishment. The case was called for trial at the last term of the Circuit Court at Hillsville, but because the indictment had on the opinion of the court been improperly made, it was quashed, and the court stated from the bench that the matter would not be further considered unless there should new and more conclusive developments.

At the head of the list of churchmen who were indicted was Rev. John Henry Frazier who had been active in the services in which prayers were offered for teh removal of King. Rev. John Crockett, a negro minister, was also in the list of men indicted.

The trouble with King, so far as the cult was concerned, was that he did not embrace their doctrine and he furthermore, entered strenuous objections when his wife showed an inclination to embrace the faith. This resulted in prayers among the members of the cult for his removal, and it was but a few days until his dead body was found in his barnyard. Members contended that King had died from natural causes, that God had removed him in accordance with their prayers, but without violence, such as would have placed the blood of King directly upon human agency. The coroner who investigated the death, came to the conclusion that King did not die from natural causes, but was murdered,and told how his head had been crushed in by a blow. The coroner was thoroughly convinced that King had met his death by foul play, but the judge of the court was of the opinion that more substantial evidence should be secured before any of the men suspected should be arraigned on the charge of murder.

NEWSPAPER MEN TESTIFY FOR T. R.

O'Laughlin Describes Roosevelt's Rambles on The Water Wagon.

A LENGTHY TRIAL.

Roosevelt Kicks and Whispers While Defendant is Silent—Night Sessions of Court Are Probable.

Marquette, Mich., May 28—The second of nearly a dozen newspaper men here to testify in behalf of Theodore Roosevelt against their fellow-craftsman, George A. Newett, of Ishpeming, was called to the stand this morning to testify as to the Colonel's sobriety.

He was John Callahan O'aughlin, of Chicago, for a brief time assistant secretary of state in the Roosevelt administration.

O'Loughlin, like Gibson Gardner, who testified yesterday, has been much with the Colonel since Roosevelt first became President.

Newett, since the beginning of the trial, has sat almost motionless, his eyes for the most part fixed on the floor, seldom talking with his attorneys, who sat beside him. Roosevelt, sitting a yard and a half away presents a striking contrast.

Almost constantly in motion, he nods and kicks his feet and tugs at his watchchain part of the time repeating the testimony of witnesses inaudibly with his lips, and commenting on proceedings in whispers with such friends as chance to sit beside him.

Attorneys are trying to conjecture when the end of the trial will come, but have not succeeded. The bales of depositions secured by the defense will take a long time to read, for each contains an examination of the witness in full. Roosevelt's lawyers, however, hope to conclude presentation of their evidence in chief tonight or by tomorrow noon at least.

Judge Flannigan has announced his willingness to conduct court until 11 p. m., each night.

O'Laughlin gave his age as 40 and his residence as Washington. His emplomeent he said is with a Chicago newspaper.

"I met the Colonel in Washington in 1903," he said "when he was connected with the Civil Service Commission. Later I knew him when he was assistant secretary of the navy. That was at the beginning of the Spanish-American war and I always saw Roosevelt twice a day and sometimes five, six or seven times a day.

"Then he went to the front with the Rough Riders. I saw him only occasionally as governor of New York.

"I saw Colonel Roosevelt, morning, noon and night as President.

"I met him below Khartoum in Africa, on his way north from his hunting trip."

O'aLughlan said from the oSudan to Paris he acted not only as newspaper correspondent but as secretary to the Colonel. He described the Roosevelt rambles up the Nile through Italy, and the criss-cross of Europe.

"There were public receptions and banquets right along," he said. "I took down the Colonel's remarks in short hand so there could be no misinterpreation of what he said. I knew his physical condition all that time."

The jury took a visbly deep interest in O'Laughlan's travel talk.Juryman Robert Bruce, the Scottish-born lumber boss, gave the silent O. K., to O'Laughlin's geographical statements by unconscious nods.

DEATH ENDS MURDER CASE.

Aged Defendant Dies, Son Released From Prosecution.

Bristol, Va., May 28.—Following four years of uncertainty and suspenss, in the midst of which John Carleton, 60 years old, broken in health and spirit, died, the murder case in which he was involved was ended yesterday. His son, Rupert Carleton, was released from further prosecution.

John Carleton's son-in-law, Arthur Howard, was shot to death by Rupert Carleton, following repeated family quarrels. Young Carleton's father and mother were indicted with him for the murder. The trial resulted in a sentence of 15 years for each of them, but the Supreme Court reversed the decision as to the parents and remanded the case of the son.

Americans in Peril.

The lives of scores of Americans are in grave peril in Guayamas Mex., as a result of a fierce battle which is raging between the Federal army and the Rebel forces, which began the attack yesterday morning. A number of these dropped in the principal business streets, causing great damage to property, and causing considerable loss of life. Masson also made several flights out over the harbor, where he dropped bombs on the deck of the federal warship Guerrero, lying at the harbor. Fierce fighting was in progress yesterday between the Federals and the advance guard of the rebels.

QUICK JUSTICE AT FAIRFAX TODAY

Negro Charged With Crime Against Six-Year-Old Girl.

TRIAL ON FRIDAY.

Unspeakable Crime Followed by Quick Arrest—Judge Thornton Orders Special Grand Jury.

A crime, so horrible in its details that officers of the court, hardened to many a pitiful story heard in the coure of their work, shuddered as the facts were told at Fairfax courthouse today when Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding in the Circuit Court ordered a special grand jury to consider an indictment against Benjamin Bailey, a negro, who was arrested last night.

The victim of Bailey's fiendishness is a little six-year-old girl, Mary Follin, who lives on a place owned by her father, Gabriel Follin, a farmer at Great Falls, which is in Fairfax county. The offense occurred on last Thursday, but it was not until yesterday that a warrant was issued. The child was badly injured. Owen Dailey, constable of the Drainville district, captured the negro and brought him to Fairfax courthouse where he was placed in jail.

Immediately on arival at the courthouse this morning, Judge Thornton ordered a special grand jury which convened at once. R. B. Tyler, was named as foreman, and after hearing the evidence brought in a true bill against Bailey charging him with a capital offense.

Bailey, a black negro, seemingly about 23 or 24 years old, immediately was brought into court. He seemed to be half witted and did not understand the few questions that were put to him. Not having a lawyer, Judge Thornton appointed J. W. Ballard and R. R. Farr to defend him and set his trial for Friday morning at ten o'clock. It is understood that Bailey made a full confession.

As soon as the terrible crime became known throughout Fairfax county last night and this morning there was some fear of the negro being lynched, but the prompt action of Judge Thornton in summoning a special grand jury and setting the trial for so early a date is believed to have forstalled any action on the part of the people to take the law in their own hands.

Norfolk, Va., May 28.—James Johnson, alias Red, a negro, 31 years old, stabbed Gabriel West, 35 years old, another negro, at Walker avenue and Obendoffer Road Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, killing him almost instantly.

A jury headed by County Coroner J. W. Abbitt with Officer E. H. Whitehurst froeman, after hearing the evidence, rendered a verdict of self efense and exonerated Johnson from all blame.

The knife pierced West's left breast near the heart.

West, was about to strike Johnson who is crippled, with a club when the latter dodged the blow and stabbed him.

West had made an unenviable record with the police department, having been arrested for different offenses on numerous occasions.

FLETCHER MOVES HERE

Man Under Sentence to Serve 5 years in Penitentiary Locates in Alexandria.

James J. Fletcher, who is under a sentence to serve five years in the penitentiary for conspiring to secure fales testimony in a suti for divorce against his wife, Julia B. Fletcher, is now a resident of Alexandra.

Fletcher took up his abode in this city last week in an attempt to forestall an order of Justice Barnard for immediate payment of $100 back alimony. A bench warrant was issued for his arrest, but was not served.

Another tangle to the case was added yesterday when Fletcher, through his atorney, R. H. Yeatman, filed a petition in bankruptcy.

Fletcher stated that he is a student, and gives his place of business as the ochester Hotel. The schedule of his debts states that he owes more than $2,500 taxes, and that otehr debts preferred by law will total $2,372.08. He puts his unsecured claims at $5,027; notes and bills that ought to be paid by others at $400, making a total indebtedness of $31,-928.43. His assets, according to the schedule, consist of real estate valued at $3,150; stock in trade, $10; household goods, $500, and debts due on open accounts, $235, bringing his total assets up to $3,895.

It will be remembered that Fletcher was sentenced after a sensational trial in which it developed that a woman impersonating his wife was sent from Washington to Alexandria in a taxicab after midnight in company with two soldiers which was fololwed by another cab in which there were detectives.

May King, the woman who tried to get Mrs. Fletcher out on an automobile ride in order to compromise her, is under sentence to serve two years in the penitentiary, and is now on bail. George Noble, the negro private detecive, is under sentence to serve three years, and was recently released on bail.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

MOTHER AND SON MANGLED.

Mrs. Charles T. Copeland And Little Boy Fatally Injured on Railway.

Newport News, Va., May 28.—Mrs. Charles T. Copeland and her 6-year-old son, Fenton, of Fox Hill, died in the Dixie hospital early yesterday morning from injuries suffered when a surrey in which they were riding with Mr. Copeland was struck by Chesapeake and Ohio passenger train No. 18, from Richmond, at the Home street crossing, Phoebus, Monday night at 8 o'clock.

The husband is in the hospital suffering from three broken ribs, a dislocated shoulder and other injuries and may die.

Mrs. Copeland and the child suffered fractured skulls and were badly crushed and died within a few minutes after each other shortly after being rushed to the hospital.

The accident was due to the fact that freight cars were lined up on both sides of the passenger track and Mr. Copeland did not see the train, which was going into Old Point from Richmond. The engineer claims that the horse was driven into the engine. The animal was killed and the surrey smashed to plinters. Mr. Copeland is a big fish packer.

KILLED BY TRAIN.

W. O. Blakey, Prominent Citizen of Gordonsville, Struck by a Train.

Gordonsville, Va., May 28.—W. O. Blakey, a prominent citizen of Gordonsville, was killed by a Chesapeake and Ohio Railway train here at 5:30 yesterday morning.

Mr. Blakey had been identified with the interests of this town for the last thirty years, serving as postmaster during the Cleveland administration; was chairman of the local democratic committee, town registrar, treasurer and councilman, besides conducting a large mercantile business.

Mr. Blakey was the representative of the Standard Oil Company here and it was in pursuit of their business this morning that he was killed. He was standing on a side track waiting for a fast train to pass when an engine from the coal bin backed over him and dragged him about seventy-five yards.

Drs. Scott and Banks were soon there but the victim was beyond human aid. Mr. Blakey was postmaster of the Masonic lodge here, and was also a Woodman of the World. He was 56 years old, and leaves a widow and four children.

Governor Mann at His Office.

Richmond, May 28.—Governor Mann went to his office yesterday morning, spending some two hours there attending to correspondence and business. He was advised not to make the trip, but he declared that he felt strong enough to go, that he saw no reason why he should not, and proceeded to walk over from the Mansion. He took the elevator and went to his office.

He received no callers, save that some of the State officials paid their respects. The Governor left before noon and walked back to the Mansion, suffering no ill effects. He says he will from time to time go to his office, but that he will not make trips daily until he has fully recovered his strength.

It is now more than six weeks since the Governor went under he knife in Memorial Hospital for appendicitis.

As a tragic sequel to the death of James Baneskiwicz, 12 years old, of Baltimore, who was struck by a batted ball on Sunday afternoon and killed, his mother, Mrs. Agnes Baneskiewicz, dropped dead last night in the office of an undertaker. She was arranging with him for her son's funeral.

VIRGINIANS CHEERED.

Richmond is Making Effort to Get Next Meeting.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 28.—After a series of ovations lasting until they had arrived at their headquarters last night, the Virginia delegates to the Confederate reunion, headed by the Richmond Howitzers and other historic organizations, rested well until an early hour yesterday morning, when the lively scenes on the streets caused them to go on sight-seeing trips.

The Richmond delegation is working hard to capture the next reunion for the capital of the Old Dominion. It is being recalled how well the old soldiers were cared for at the last reunion in Richmond, when a multiplicity of imposing ceremonies made the meeting one of the greatest in the history of the Grand Camp of United Confederate Veterans.

Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Jacksonville delegations have entered the field for the 1914 reunion. Other cities in the contest include Nashville, Richmond, Baltimore and San Antonio. A delegation from Denver, Col., also is in the city endeavoring to secure the 1914 or 1915 reunion for that city.

At a meeting of the Confederate States Memorial Association, held Monday afternoon, a cordial welcome was extended to the visiting veterans by this organization of women. A glowing tribute was paid the members of the association present in an address by W. W. Chambliss, representing the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Radical changes in the work of the association were predicted by Mrs. W. J. Behan, of New Orleans. In an address before the members of the body she declared that too much attention had been devoted to honoring memory of the dead and not enough toward making provisions for the living. She asserted that resolutions would be introduced today which, if adopted, may change the policy of the organization in this respect.

An enthusiastic meeting, the first of their reunion, was held Monday night by Sons of Confederate Veterans. A feature of the occasion was the singing of the Confederate choir, composed of young women from Virginia and Tennessee. All the selections rendered were Southern melodies and brought forth repeated cheers from the Sons of Veterans and veterans present.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 28.—William W. Old, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., late yesterday was elected commander-in-chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans organization, now in session here. The reunion of the Sons of Veterans will be held in the city chosen for the annual reunion of the Confederate Veterans.

Other officers chosen by the Sons of Veterans were Dr. A. M. Brailsford, of Mullins, S. C., commander of the Army of Virginia Department; P. J. Mullin, Rome, Ga., commander of the Tennesee Department; Edgar Scurry, Wichita Falls, Texas, commander of the Transmississippi Department.

New members of the executive council selected today follow: John Baile, of Rome, Ga.; W. H. Brandon, of Little Rock, Ark.; Seymour Stewart ,of St. Louis, Mo.; W. G. Pritchard, of Charleston, S. C. Dr. Thos. M. Owen, of Montgomery, Ala., was chosen as historian general.

Representatives from every Southern state attended the meetings of the organizations today.

PYTHIANS ASSEMBLE.

Every Lodge Represented at Opening Session in Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., May 28. — Several hundred Pythians and others attended the opening session of the forty-fifth annual convention of the Virginia Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias, at the Lynnhaven Hotel last night.

The initial session was open to the public, and was featured by addresses of welcome by Captain W. R. Mayo, mayor of Norfolk, and Wm. McK. Woodhouse, of Norfolk, grand master at-arms, and response by B. A. Ruffin, of Richmond, grand chancellor of the State. Following the addresses the Grand Lodge was formally organized. There were exemplifications of third rank and a social session.

Practically every lodge in the state is represented at the convention which will continue through Wednesday and Thursday.

Lynchburg will likely be chosen as the next place of meeting. The Hill city's representatives are doing some great hustling, and it looks as if they will win.

The Grand Temple of Pythian Sisters of Virginia also convened in annual session yesterday. Mrs. Elsie Vandevort, grand chief, of Washington, D. C., presided. A feature of the initial session was the address by Mrs. Ida M. Johnson,of Central City, Col., supreme chief of the order.

All the sessions of the Grand Lodge will be held at the Lynnhaven.

Tonight the Grand Lodge will be entertained by Lee Lodge ,of Berkeley. Included in the program for Thursday is a trip on Hampton Roads aboard the steamer Maryland.

ALEXANDRIA AND THE ARMOR PLANT.

On Saturday the Gazette published an editorial in reference to the establishment of an Armor plant by the United States government, a bill having been introduced in the Senate by Senator Ashurst, of Arizona, providing $1,500,000 for its construction. The suggestion that Alexandria, on account of its many advantages, would be the proper location for the plant has caused considerable comment and steps will in all probability be taken at once by the Chamber of Commerce to investigate the proposition.

Baltimore has commenced an active campaign to secure the plant for tha city and in this morning issue of the Sun some facts are given relative to the undertaking that may interest Alexandria.

The proposition to establish a government-owned armor plate plant is no new one . Uncle Sam frequently, in the past, has had cause for dissatisfaction at the price which he was compelled to pay for armor plate, which in this country is now produced by the Carnegie and Bethlehem steel companies. On the other hand, no steel plant tha concerns itself purely with the production of armor plate has as yet been able to thrive, as the work is not sufficiently continuous. So, if the government goes into the armor plate business it may lose, during the months when the plant is idle, the amount which it will save on reduced prices.

The capacity of the Carnegie Steel Company is 10,000 tons per year and that of the Bethlehem Steel Company 12,000 tons. On an annual two-battleship program the demand for armor plate will be 16,000 tons per year, and the government factory would have to be equipped to supply that amount. The number of men likely to be employed on such a plant varies according to the point the process of manufacturing the armor plate begins, whether you buy material relatively raw or elatively finished. In any case, however, it is not a business whic hemployes a very large payroll. Thus it is estimated that the armor plate business of the Carnegie mills constitute bu ta very small fraction of their total output; and while it is impossible to tell exactly the number of men who would be empolyed on a government plant, it is most unlikely that the number would exceed 300. However, that should be no detriment to its establishment here.

APPOINTMENTS FROM VIRGINIA.

President Wilson has a queer idea of making his appointments from Virginia. Granting that he has every right to be sore on the Old Dominion State for its failure to support him in the Baltimore convention is it right for him to credit the few appointments he has made of so-called Virginians to this state? The selection of Assistant Secretary Williams and Auditor Wooley were made for the purpose of satisfying promises made in New York and had nothing to do with conditions in this state. Yet both appointments were accredited to Virginia.

But the President has gone even farther. Yesterday he named Chas M. Bruce ,of Arizona, as assistant commissioner of the general land office.

Mr. Bruce is a Virginian by birth and for many years has resided in that state. For some time he lived in Arizona, and during Mr. Cleveland's second term as President, he was Secretary of Territory of Arizona and for one year acting governor. His nomination will be so changed as to accredit him to Virginia.

GOV. HOOPER HISSED.

First Republican Chief Executive to Address Grand Camp.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 28.—A few audible hisses which were later drowned by cheers and applause followed the introduction of Governor Benjamin W. Hooper, of Tennessee today at the first meeting of the United Confederate Veterans' twenty-third reunion here.

The demonstration delayed the governor a brief period, but after quiet was restored he delivered his welcoming address without interruption except for cheers.

Governor Hooper is reported to have been the first Republican state executive to welcome delegates to a United Confederate Veteran's reunion.

Rumors were current at Camp A. B. Stewart and in the city Monday might that there was a possibility of a hostile demonstration. These rumors apparently had no discernible source, but were so persistent that Mayor T. C. Thompson, of Chattanooga, and other city officials had taken steps to quell any disturbance Governor Hooper also is reported to have been informed as to the reports being circulated.

The demonstration, however, was so short-lived that it was not necessary for the city officers to take action. The appluase and cheers drowned out the few hisses.

Long before the hour at which the first meeting of the veterans was scheduled to convene, the auditorium was filled to overflowing, and many persons were standing. "Dixie" was played as General Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, and his staff marched to the platform and were seated. All the veterans arose in a body an dthe applause lasted for several minutes.

In his address General Young paid a tribute to bravery of the men and women of the Southern States and said that Tennessee should rejoice to have once more the privilege of entertaining the men who followed banners of the South.

Herman Mueller, 51 years of age, a farmer, residing near West Bend, Wis., poured arsenic into the coffee pot from which the members of his family were to be served Monday night, and then went to the pump house near the railroad tracks and hanged himself. His wife, their daughter and their young son drank from the coffee pot that night and became ill. All three may die. No reason is known for Mueller's act.

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die.

At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well.

I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.

As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years.

Your druggist sells it. Please try it.

GOING TO THE WEDDING

By AMY GADSDEN.

"I went downtown and bought Lucy's wedding gift today," said the girl when conversation lagged a bit. "It was real fun."

"I went to school with Lucy, but she didn't ask me to her wedding or to the reception," said the young man caller. "I wish to goodness she had. Surely one's schoolmates ought to be asked if anybody is."

"The reception is going to be small," said the girl, soothingly. "The house isn't large you know."

"They've invited the whole town to the wedding—all but me."

"Well, it's too bad. I don't see, though, how you can go when you're not asked."

"If there was any way to slip me in you'd think of it, wouldn't you?" said the young man. "Couldn't I pretend to be a butler or something?"

"Butlers wouldn't be at the wedding," exclaimed the girl. "You're thinking of ushers. Somebody might drop her card of admission out of the church window to you."

"She might get caught and thrown out. Do people have to have cards to the reception, too?"

"No, you walk right in for that, but you couldn't do it without being caught. They'd know you weren't asked.'

"I'd give a lot to go—to the wedding, anyhow."

"I didn't know you were so crazy over weddings."

"It isn't weddings I'm crazy over," said the young man, with a sigh. "But I bet you're going to let Sam Meadows take you."

"He hasn't asked me yet, but if he wants to take me I don't see why I shouldn't go with him and enjoy myself."

"No, I suppose not. A girl can't imagine going with Sam and not having the time of her life."

"I didn't say that."

"No, but you thought it, apparently. And here I am, crazy to go, and you won't even think up a practical way to smuggle me in."

"If you had called there recently you'd have received an invitation."

"I didn't want to call there. There was another place where I preferred to go."

"Dear me! What a popular young man."

"I didn't say a lot of places," he protested. "But you know I haven't got very much time and I'd rather be here than anywhere else."

"That's very kind of you," she said, smiling. "But you see what you've lost by it—you can't go to the wedding."

"Oh, bother!' he cried. "I don't care a thing about that wedding."

"Why you said you were crazy to go!"

"I am. But if you weren't going I'd not care at all!

"Maybe I won't go. Mother and father will be away and it may happen that Sam will take somebody else."

"That isn't likely. He's been here every evening for months."

"Please don't exaggerate."

"Well, he's been here every time I have. And now he can take you to the doings and I've got to sit back and smile like an angel and look as if I liked it."

"You won't even see us."

"No, but I know just what a good time Sam will have. There won't be a prettier girl there than you are."

"Sam'll think differently," she said with a laugh. "Sam's awfully interested in my cousin Mary, who's one of the bridesmaids. He always talks about her every minute when he calls here. You see, they had a quarrel, and he came here to get news of her. It's all right now. I was the peacemaker, by the way."

"Then you're not going!" cried the young man joyfully. "Can I come over that evening?"

"I think you're horrid," she pouted. "I'm crazy to go to the wedding.'

'And I'm crazy about you!" he blurted out. "I've been trying to tell you all the evening, I want you to marry me!"

"Well, why— It's so—"

"You know I love you,' he said. "I couldn't stand it to think of your going with Sam when I wanted so to take you."

"You can go now!" she cried, securing possession of her own hands and proceeding to clap them. "One's fiance, you know, is always included!'—Chicago Daily News.

Mice Didn't Care.

Little Dorothea is one of those children whose danger signal is silence. When she is still, she is in mischief.

The other day her mother became aware of the quiet which boded trouble. She was about to look for the child when, at that moment, Dorothea came in, her face rosy with happiness and her mouth covered with crumbs.

"Where have you been, Dorothea?" asked her mother. "What are you eating?"

"Cheese," said the young lady calmly.

"Cheese? Where did you get it, dear?"

"In the mouf-trap."

"In the mouse-trap!" exclaimed her mother, horrified.

"O, yeth!"

"But what will the mice do? They won't have any cheese."

"O, dey don't care, mamma! Dey was two monfies in de trap, and dey didn't care a bit."

Good Test.

"Has Mrs. Bifferis a sense of humor?"

"I'm afraid not. I've seen her look at Mr. Biffels a number of times without ever smiling."

SUICIDE FROM REMORSE.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 28. — After he had fired a bullet in to his right temple as he sat in a chair at the foot of the grave of the wife killed by a blow on her head when they quarreled last February Peter Miconi, aged 60 of No. 1003 Buttonwood street, lived long enough last evening to die as Deputy Coroner Drewes, of Delaware county carried him up the steps to the University Hospital.

The tragedy of remorse was enacted on the Delaware county side of the Fernweed cemetery, about 7 o'clock. Strolling among graves Drewes heard a shot and seeking to locate it, came across Miconi sitting in an iron chair at the foot of a grave, a revolver at his feet and a bullet hole in his right temple.

Miconi had recently been released on bail pending his trial on the charge of killing his wife, Emma, and had been very despondent over the tragedy.

Clergyman's Son Had Tuberculosis; Now Well

People who have Consumption are often filled with bright hopes of recovery, only to realize that improvement is but temporary. Consumption is dreaded by everyone. Those who had it and used Eckman's Alterative can testify to its beneficial effects. No one need doubt it—there is plenty of evidence from live witnesses. Investigate the following:—

Amenia, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: Prior to Feb., 1908, I was located in Rochester, N. Y., suffering with LaGrippe, which developed into Tuberculosis. My physician gave me one month to live. I was having terrible night sweats and mid-day chills and losing flesh rapidly, having gone from 155 to 135 pounds. I coughed and raised continually and became so weak that walking a few feet exhausted me. On my return home, my regular physician gave me little encouragement. My father, who is a clergyman, heard of Eckman's Alterative and induced me to take it. The night sweats and chills disappeared, my cough became easier and gradually diminished and in a few days I developed an appetite, the first in months. I am now in perfect health, back to 155 lbs. I feel certain that I owe my life to Eckman's Alterative."

(Signed) E. H. COWLES.

"Gentlemen: I cannot find words to express my appreciation of what your remedy has done for my son. It changed despair into hope within two weeks after he began taking it, and without any doubt in my mind, it saved his life. I wish to add my endorsement to every word of his testimonial."

(Signed) REV. J. J. COWLES.
Pastor Presbyterian Church.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs.
